I know the East Bay having lived here all my life. I'm a product of the Berkeley schools, and after graduating from Berkeley High, continued my education at UC Berkeley where I earned a B.A. in Sociology.

At UC Berkeley I participated in intercollegiate athletics, and was a member of the varsity soccer team. My freshman year I was voted Co-MVP, was elected Co-Captain my sophomore year, and junior year was invited to tryout with the Under-21 U.S. National Team. Competing day in and out at such competitive levels, while also maintaining my studies, has ingrained in me invaluable lifelong lessons including discipline, dedication, and drive.

Prior to starting my real estate career I worked as a member of the State Wide Arbitration Team for the Alameda County Department of Child Support Services, where I negotiated and enforced monetary and medical judgments and was named Expert Negotiator....all skills which serve the interests of my real estate clients when negotiating on their behalf.

"Kim is conscientious, dedicated, and dependable. She remains resilient through the most arduous situations, and exhibits professionalism and excellent interpersonal skills in all facets."

— D. Olsen, Supervisor with the Dept. of Child Support Services.

AGENT PROFILE

Moving to the Bay Area is more than just finding a place to live, it's finding a place to call home. A home here is a place where you can experience the life, the culture, and the society that make up a vibrant, active, and livable community. As a lifelong and dynamic member of the East Bay, I offer you my expertise, skills, energy, and knowledge in finding that perfect house and neighborhood that you can call home.

“Kim possesses that rare combination of intelligence, dedication, persistence and personality that make her an exceptional real estate professional. She can handle very complex transactions and negotiations, and always places her clients’ best interests and goals at the forefront of her mind. In addition, her friendly, optimistic attitude makes it fun for her clients in the process. She is an extraordinary agent and person.”

— Peter Damm, Berkeley Hills Realty.

Buying or selling a home is often the largest, most important financial transaction people experience in their lifetime. They deserve someone who is knowledgeable, understands their needs, but most importantly, who will protect their interests. My job is to serve you, and I consider the opportunity a privilege and pleasure.
